Synopsis

Boys On Film crosses the Atlantic to bring you a bevy of intriguing and genre-busting shorts from the land of the free. Porn star turned actor Brent Corrigan's almost human closet-case lies in wait in Los Angeles, a trio of boys experiment with mind-altering bugs in the forests of Maine, the joy of 'sexting' is revealed on the streets of California, two high school boys in Philadelphia confront one another's sexuality at the pool and an infamous bus terminal / cruising hot spot is the backdrop to a young man's coming out in the Big Apple. With award-winning shorts from the East coast to West side, there is more to these American boys than meets the eye.

Boys On Film

'Boys on Film 3: American Boy' is the second of a series of three volumes to be released in 2009. 'Boys on Film' is picking up the baton from where a much loved but long since forgotten series of gay and lesbian shorts left off many years ago.

'Boys on Film 1: Hard Love' was released on March 9th to rapturous acclaim. Gay times called it "A brilliant collection that relishes in the eclectic ways we live our lives". We at Peccadillo hope to continue with this success with a second volume of shorts, each with a distinct flavour, ensuring that all tastes are catered to.

'Boys on Film 2: In Too Deep' was released August 17th and garnered an even stronger response thanks to its varied and edgier content. QX magazine found it "scary, funny, arty and politically astute" while Electric Sheep magazine recommended it as "a collection worth seeking out".

'Here Come The Girls', signals Peccadillo's foray into lesbian short film, featuring shorts from respected lesbian writers, directors and actors such as Guinevere Turner (The L Word, American Psycho), Laurie Colbert and Dominique Cardona (Finn's Girl) and Roberta Munroe (How Not To Make A Short Film).

Dare – Dir. Adam Salky (16mins)
Starring Adam West, Michael Cassidy

After play practice one night for the senior production of 'A Streetcar Named Desire', backstage boy Ben gives Johnny, the play's Stanley, a ride home to help him with his lines. When a bottle of champagne gets opened, the boys end up in Johnny's swimming pool, where everyday boundary lines quickly blur.

In The Closet – Dir. Jody Wheeler (14mins)
Starring Brent Corrigan, JT Tepnapa

An anonymous bedroom inside a typical apartment somewhere in Los Angeles. A pair of young men enter, one having scored a one-night stand, the other giving away little as to his true intentions. Little does one of them know that a homo-hungry closet-case lies in wait, and it hasn't been fed in quite some time... Porn star Brent Corrigan whips out his acting chops and pulls it off in an entertaining B-movie knees-up with considerable bite.

Area X – Dir. Dennis Shinnars (USA) (15mins)
Starring Matt Schunerman, Antony Raymond

Paul's dad unexpectedly picks him up from work. Then a hooker. After dropping them off at a seedy roadside motel, Paul's father hands him two hundred dollars and says that he mustn't come out until he's a man. These are just a few of the bizarre events that Paul recounts to Marco, a seductive hustler he meets in a bar on a hidden street underneath New York City's infamous Port Authority Bus Terminal, also known as 'Area X'.

The Young and Evil – Dir. Julian Breece (15mins)
Starring Vaughn Lowery, Mark Berry

This visceral short film follows the zero-to-60 path of Karel, a young African-American who is determined to seduce an older man, an HIV prevention advocate, into giving him the virus. The oft-taboo issues of having gay sex but not using protection are amplified by taking place in the African-American community, a daring approach to a controversial topic that landed the film a Sundance nomination.

Dish :) – Dir. Brian Krinsky (15mins)
Starring Matthew Monge, Jeff Martin, Octavio Altamirano

Emo kids Israel and Louie walk around their East Los Angeles neighborhood dishing and "sexting" about their high school classmates. After listening to Louie boast about his sexual escapades, Israel decides he has some catching up to do.

Official Selection; Iris Prize Festival 2009, Frameline San Francisco

Bugcrush – Dir. Carter Smith (36mins)
Starring Donald Cumming, Josh Caras

Bugcrush is the story of Ben, a small-town high school loner, whose fascination with Grant, a dangerously seductive new kid, leads him into something much more sinister than he could ever have imagined.

Winner Short Film Award Sundance Film Festival

Astoria, Queens – Dir. Kyle Coker (22mins)
Starring Aaron Michael Davies, James Heffron, Sangeeta Parekh

Inspired by 'The Wizard of Oz', four Kansas City twentysomething misfits navigate their new lives in the Emerald City of New York. Newly single Thom, our Dorothy, discovers NYC in a second "coming out party". Jimboy, the brainless Scarecrow, wants to become the first gay white rap superstar. Anisha, the workaholic Tinman, searches for a heart and Callie, a whiskey drinking Cowardly Lion, lacks the courage to make it as an actress. Featuring music from Heloise and the Savoir Faire.
